“Stepping off the Sideline”

1. If you could instantly become brilliant at any skill (serious or silly), what would you choose — and why?

Read Romans 10:9-15

2. Romans 10 speaks about confessing with our mouths and believing in our hearts.

Where do you see the connection between faith we believe and faith we live out?

Read Romans 12:3-8

3. Romans 12 warns us “not to think of ourselves more highly than we ought.”

What does healthy, biblical humility look like in practice — and what does false humility look like?

4. Paul says we all have different gifts “according to the grace given to each of us.”

How aware are you of the gifts God has given you? What helps you recognise them?

5. Sometimes others see our gifts before we do.

Has anyone ever called out a gift in you that surprised you? How did that shape you?

6. Which gifts in Romans 12:3–8 do you feel drawn to — even if you’re not sure you “have” them yet?

7. What helps a church culture where people feel safe to try, fail, grow, and use their gifts? What gets in the way?

8. Paul’s picture of the church is a body — every part needed, every part active.

What might stepping off the sidelines look like for you personally — not in theory, but in one small, concrete step?

9. If our gifts are given “for the common good,”

How might our church’s gifts bless the wider community in Camberley? Where do you see opportunities right now?

10. If you prayed one bold prayer this week about your gifts — either to discover, develop, or deploy them — what would you pray?
