

Mission Sunday: “This Missional Moment” Life Group Questions from June 7th

Luke 24:13-35 Show Up, Listen Up, Speak Up, Wake Up.

Icebreaker: If Jesus were to join you on a walk today — like He did on the Emmaus Road — where would He catch you walking, what would you be talking about and what snack would He find you eating?

Read Luke 24:13–35:

- 1. Seeing the Moment: The sermon began with the idea that “God is doing something special in our generation.” Where do you see signs of spiritual hunger or openness in our culture today — even in unexpected places?
- 2. SHOW UP — Being Present: Jesus “came near and walked with them” (v.15). What does it look like for us — personally or as a church — to “show up” in the places where people already are? Where might God be nudging you to be more intentionally present?
- 3. Turning Ordinary Places into Holy Ground: The sermon asked: “How could we take an ordinary place and turn it into holy ground?” Where in your weekly routine (workplace, café, gym, school gate, etc.) could God be inviting you to create sacred moments?
- 4. LISTEN UP — The Ministry of Listening: Before Jesus spoke, He asked questions and listened (v.17–19). Why is listening such a powerful form of love, especially for young people today? What helps you listen well — and what gets in the way?
- 5. SPEAK UP — Courage to Share: Jesus eventually speaks truth boldly (v.25–27). What makes it difficult for Christians today to “speak up” about faith — and what helps you overcome that hesitation? If someone asked you why Jesus matters, what simple explanation would you give v.27? (Think of this as your 30-second Emmaus Road summary.)
- 6. WAKE UP — Eyes Opened: Their eyes were opened when Jesus broke bread (v.31). Where have you seen God “open someone’s eyes” — maybe slowly, unexpectedly, or through ordinary moments? We were encouraged to pray for our children, our grandchildren our families. Who in your life are you praying for right now — that God would open their eyes to Jesus?
- 7. Jesus in the Ordinary: Jesus revealed Himself through walking, talking, eating, sitting, drinking — the most ordinary human activities. Where might Jesus be trying to reveal Himself in the ordinary rhythms of your life this week?
- 8. Our Missional Moment in Frimley: The sermon ended with the question: “How does Jesus want to reveal Himself in Frimley/Camberley today — through Frimley Baptist Church and through me?” What might that look like in practical, simple, everyday ways?
