“Joy, Confidence & Partnership”

Icebreaker: If people thought of you as a brand slogan, what would it be? (Examples: “Just Do It”, “Have a Break”, “Probably the Best...”, “Every Little Helps”).

Read Philippians 1: 1-11

- 1. Joy in Remembering Others: Paul says in v3, “I thank my God every time I remember you.” Who is someone you thank God for whenever they come to mind — and why?
- 2. Partnership in the Gospel: Paul rejoices because the Philippians are partners, not spectators. Where do you personally feel most “in partnership” with the gospel — and where do you feel more like a spectator?
- 3. Outward Circumstances: Paul writes from prison yet overflows with joy. What helps you hold onto joy when circumstances are difficult?
- 4. Feeling on the Edge: Some people feel deeply connected in church; others feel on the margins. What helps someone move from “attending” to truly “belonging”?
- 5. God’s Work in You: Philippians 1:6 says God will complete the work He began in us. Where do you most need to trust that God is still at work in your life?
- 6. Works in Progress: We are all unfinished, imperfect, “under construction.” How does remembering this help us show grace to others — and to ourselves?
- 7. All for One and One for All: Paul and the Philippians shared a deep, costly loyalty. What would it look like for our church to embody “all for one and one for all” today?
- 8. Overflowing Love: Paul prays that their love would “abound more and more.” Where do you sense God inviting you to grow in love this week — and what might be one practical step?
- 9. Frimley Baptist Church: If someone were to write a letter about our church the way Paul wrote about Philippi, what do you hope they would say — and what do you think they would say?
